This means when a product can no more be used for the original purpose, think carefully and use it for some other useful purpose. For example, cracked crockery, or cups with broken handles can be used to grow small plants and as feeding vessels for birds.

Living in harmony with nature' is not new to us. Sustainable living has always been an integral part of India's tradition and culture. It has been integrated with our long-lasting traditions and practices, customs, art and crafts, festivals, food, beliefs, rituals and folklore. Ingrained within us is the philosophy that 'entire natural world be in harmony' which is reflected in the famous phrase in Sanskrit 'Vasudhaiv kutumbakam' that means "the entire earth is one family". The phrase is mentioned in 'Mahaupanishad', that is probably a part of the ancient Indian text, Atharva Veda
